WISCAPE CONVERSATION

The Future of Political Leadership and the Role of Public Universities

Coffee and conversation with Steven Olikara

In an era of extreme partisanship and political dysfunction, what can we do to restore a governing system that works?

In this WISCAPE talk, Steven Olikara, founder of the Millennial Action Project, will chart a path forward that is championed by a new generation of political leaders, highlighting higher education as a key part of the solution.

This event is cosponsored by the office of State Representative
Dave Murphy.
